

The most important teachers in the lives of children are their parents.

The most important time for creating a positive trajectory for learning and life is from birth to five.

The most important acts (from infancy onward) are reading, communication, new experiences, and safe and loving adult conversation.

The most important person is you.

Visit us online
and learn more at

raisemetoread.org

@RaiseMetoRead

